Garden décor items bring beauty to your surroundings

There's a secret to transforming your outdoor living space into an inviting oasis: It's all in the details. The right accessories for your home and garden create a distinctive ambience and set the tone for pleasure and relaxation. They can also elevate any area – from a front porch or balcony to a big backyard – from standard to sensational.

And there's no better place to find just what you want than at www.mondusdistinction.com.

The online destination for Canada's most unique home and garden décor items, Mondus Distinction is your gateway to those special pieces that will turn your surroundings into a sanctuary. Owner Lucie Bourdon brings captivating items and ideas from around the world right to you. Five years ago, she decided to combine her dream of creating a business with her passion for garden decor. The result is this captivating website that allows you to find the perfect garden accessories and great gift ideas, all at one location.

Discover everything from fountains and outdoor art to planters and furnishings; bird baths and bird feeders to candle holders and garden statues.

"Mondus' is the Latin word for 'world', which represents the vision we hold – of searching the world for exclusive treasures," Lucie explains. "We also have a unique line of handmade Canadian products such as garden furniture, birdhouses, hand blown glass and metal flowers."

At www.mondusdistinction.com, you'll discover the latest decorating trends for your home and garden, as well as advice, gardening tips and inspiring gift ideas.

The results can be fabulous. "Your yard becomes a beautiful entertainment area, bringing family and friends closer together to share good times."

From its local start in Ottawa, Mondus Distinction has grown to serve clients across Canada and the United States, with many repeat customers. Free shipping is offered within the Ottawa area.
